MEMORIAL WALL

A final resting place for the cremated ashes of lifelong Saints supporters

DIGNITY

A permanent, dignified place at Franklin's Gardens where the ashes of committed fans can be interred within the stadium they loved — giving families a lasting place to return, remember and feel close to the Club.

How does it work?

The Memorial Wall will contain 560 individual Niches, each designed to house a specially crafted urn containing the ashes of a supporter. Each Niche will feature a plaque at the front, engraved with a name, dates and a simple personal message in remembrance of a loved one.

Interment Days will take place as regularly as required, allowing ashes to be placed within a Niche as part of a simple and dignified ceremony attended by family and friends. When purchasing a Niche, all steps are clearly set out to ensure the process is straightforward, including booking an interment day. The Club can also provide food and beverages on the day, should families wish to mark the occasion as a celebration of life, at an additional cost.

The Memorial Wall will sit within a gated area, with access available via a check-in at the Club's Main Reception, allowing families and friends to visit regularly and in private. The Wall will be cleaned and maintained regularly, with full insurance and security provided.

A Memorial Wall at the heart of Franklin's Gardens

Northampton Saints are creating a dedicated Memorial Wall within the Supporter Village at Franklin's Gardens, offering supporters the opportunity to have their own cremated remains, or those of loved ones, respectfully interred at the home of the Club. This will be the first initiative of its kind by a rugby club in the UK.

For generations of supporters who sang the chants, celebrated the victories and stood by the Saints through every high and low, the Memorial Wall will provide a lasting place within the stadium footprint – somewhere memories can endure, and families can return to reflect, remember and feel close to the Club, time and again.

It will be a place of quiet reflection, belonging and remembrance – ensuring that those who were Saints in life remain Saints forever, at the heart of our Club.
